As I continue to watch Jesus come out of the water, the heavens open and a dove rests on Jesus. How is Jesus reacting? How is John reacting? How am I reacting?

Listen carefully to the voice from heaven: "This is my Son, whom I love; with him I am well pleased." How is Jesus reacting? How is John reacting and/or responding? How am I responding?

Stay quietly with Jesus and John on the banks of the Jordan River for a while

Then Jesus came from Galilee to the Jordan to be baptized by John. But John tried to deter him, saying: I need to be baptized by you, and do you come to me?" Jesus replied, "Let it be done now; it is proper for us to do this to fulfill all righteousness." Then John consented.

As soon as Jesus was baptized, he went up out of the water. At that moment heaven was opened, and he saw the Spirit of God descending like a dove and lighting on him. And a voice from heaven said, "This is my Son, whom I love; with him I am well pleased."

2. Immediate Preparation

- a. Ask for a deeper awareness of God's Presence
- b. Ask for God's inspiration

3. Considerations

Recall the incident of Jesus' baptism by John. What might have been in the mind of Jesus that would bring him from Galilee to be baptized by John in the Jordan River?

Consider John's reaction when he sees Jesus coming to be baptized by him. We're told that John tried to deter him. What do John's words say about the relationship of John and Jesus? What might be in their hearts?

Observe Jesus responding to John. Jesus wants John to understand that baptizing him is part of the will of the Father right now, a part of setting things right between God and his creation. As I watch Jesus and John, what do I see and sense?
