The centurion lowers his eyes and continues to speak to Jesus: “Lord, I do not deserve to have you come under my roof. But just say the word, and my servant will be healed.” What do I see on the face of Jesus? What do I see on the centurion’s face? How am I reacting to what I have just seen and heard?

Jesus speaks again. His face is radiant. “I tell you the truth. I have not found anyone in Israel with such great faith.” All of us are astounded by what we just heard. Jesus continues to tell us that many will come to the heavenly feast, but the subject of the kingdom will be thrown out. What am I feeling at this moment?

After a few moments, Jesus speaks very gently to the centurion: “Go! It will be done just as you believed it would.” As the centurion leaves, what do I see on his face?

Then Jesus looks at me. What is in my heart?

When Jesus has entered Capernaum, a centurion came to him, asking for help. "Lord," he said, "my servant lies at home paralyzed and in terrible suffering." Jesus said to him, "I will go and heal him."

The centurion replied, "Lord, I do not deserve to have you come under my roof. But just say the word, and my servant will be healed. For I myself am a man under authority, with soldiers under me. I tell this one, 'Go,' and he goes, and that one, 'Come,' and he comes. I say to my servant, 'Do this,' and he does it."

When Jesus heard this, he was astonished and said to those following him, "I tell you the truth. I have not found anyone in Israel with such great faith. I say to you that many will come from the east and the west, and will take their places at the feast with Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob in the kingdom of heaven. But the subjects of the kingdom will be thrown outside, into the darkness, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth."

Then Jesus said to the centurion, "Go! It will be done just as you believed it would." And his servant was healed at that very hour.

2. Immediate Preparation

- b. Ask for God's inspiration

3. Considerations

I join Jesus and his disciples as they enter Capernaum. As everyone is talking, I notice a Roman centurion approach Jesus. Everyone seems surprised. I hear the centurion speak to Jesus: "Lord, my servant lies at home paralyzed and in terrible suffering." There is obvious concern on his face.

Jesus seems to read the man's heart. "I will go and heal him." Everyone gets ready to follow Jesus.
